

Jim McLean

Vice President for Public Affairs, Kansas Health Institute

Jim McLean, Vice President for Public Affairs, is a journalist and a former member of Kansas Governor Kathleen Sebelius' senior staff. McLean oversees the production and dissemination of publications and helps guide KHI's efforts to inform policymakers. He also directs the Institute's media relations.

During his 20 years as a journalist, he received numerous awards for in-depth and investigative reporting as government and business editor for the Topeka Capital-Journal and news director for Kansas Public Radio. He holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Washburn University in Topeka.