

Chris W. Courtwright is Principal Economist for the Kansas Legislature. He has been a member for 27 years of the state's Consensus Revenue Estimating Group, which provides baseline forecasts the governor and policymakers are required by law to utilize; and as staff to all legislative tax committees and study commissions since the mid 1980s has had a front-row seat for nearly three decades of tax policy debate and development. He is the author of Kansas Tax Facts, considered the authoritative guide on Kansas state and local tax policy; and in 2004 received the prestigious President's Award from the Kansas Government

Finance Officers' Association. Chris has made recent presentations at the Journal of Policy History Conference; the Federal Reserve Regional Economic Roundtable; and the Midwest Public Finance Conference. He also serves as a member of the Kansas Public Finance Center Advisory Board and in his spare time conducts historical research on the economic policy of the Eisenhower, Kennedy and Johnson administrations.
