

2020 Kansas Economic Policy Conference

Catherine Moyer

Catherine Moyer is the General Manager and CEO for Pioneer Communications, a telephone and communications company that serves residents and businesses across southwestern Kansas. Catherine currently serves on the CoBank board of directors. Catherine also serves as Vice-Chair of the Federal Communication Commission's Precision Ag Connectivity Task Force. She serves as Chairman of the board of directors of Telcom Insurance Group, is the Chairman of the Kansas Lottery Commission, and is the Past Chairman of the Communications Coalition of Kansas. She also sits on the board of the Rural Trust Insurance Company. She is a past board member of NTCA—The Rural Broadband Association, and past chairman of the board of directors of OPASTCO, a telecommunications trade association that was joined with NTCA.

Catherine holds a bachelor's degree from Middlebury College in Vermont and a law degree from Washburn University. She resides in Ulysses, Kansas, with her husband, Kevin.

