

2023 Kansas Economic Policy Conference

Amanda Duncan Vice President and Chief Business Development Officer, Workforce Alliance of South-Central Kansas

Amanda Duncan joined the Workforce Alliance in 2007 and has held several positions of increasing responsibility in the organization; she was promoted to her current role of Vice President and Chief Business Development Officer in 2012. Ms. Duncan serves as a liaison to the US Department of Labor, the Kansas Department of Commerce, local Economic Development Organizations, and numerous business groups throughout South Central Kansas.

Ms. Duncan has served as a consultant, subject matter expert, and co-authored technical assistance manuals for the US Department of Labor on Registered Apprenticeship Programs and Sector Strategies. She has also served as a panelist and facilitator for national and state conferences, trainings, and webinars.

A fourth generation Kansan and native of Garden City, Ms. Duncan holds a Bachelor of Public Administration degree from Washburn University, and a Master of Public Administration degree and Graduate Certificates in City and County Management and Non-Profit Administration from Wichita State University. She also holds national professional certifications from the Society of Human Resource Management and the Human Resource Certification Institute. Ms. Duncan is active in workforce development and human resource professional communities, as well as many local professional, civic, and service organizations. She resides in Wichita with her husband, three children and two beagles.

